

Social Witness: World Concerns (1967)

WHEREAS there are many disturbing issues in the world, such as, hunger, war, poverty, and racial tensions,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the people and churches of our Convention study these issues, and that where possible they, aided by the Holy Spirit, be actively engaged in working towards an alleviation of such conditions.