CARE Pastor - 50% (20 hrs/wk)

The person in this position will be someone who is passionate about caring for the church family and compassionate in reaching the hurting in our neighbourhoods, with the goal of pointing them to Christ and mutual love of one another. No one can do this alone: being able to inspire, train, mobilize, network, and lead those who are like-minded and gifted in care ministry in the church body, is imperative.

Character Qualities:

- Growing relationship with Jesus Christ and love for, and trust in, His Word
- Teachable, outgoing, team player, and well-organized
- Positive, Christ-like attitude and example for others
- Passionate to see others come to know Christ and grow in Christ
- Sets appropriate boundaries to protect character and integrity.

Competence:

- Proven ministry experience
- A healthy self-awareness of spiritual gifts and abilities
- High ability to lead (recruit, motivate, equip, and support) volunteers
- Ordained minister accredited [or eligible for accreditation] by CBAC

Primary Areas of Responsibility:

- Attendance/name tag follow-up (Care Callers)
- Visitation (homes/hospitals/care homes/prisons)
- Seniors ministry (Friends in Retirement/Care Clinics)
- Prayer ministry (chapel/requests/team/events/retreats)
- Care ministry (meals/cards/blankets/transportation)
- Community initiatives (Food Bank, Open Arms, Care Givers, etc.)
- Assist Senior Pastor with congregational updates, funerals, and directed visits

Expectations:

- Set up, train and utilize teams within each area of care ministry.
- Provide a variety of monthly events for seniors' ministry.
- Hold/host at least four all-church prayer ministry events a year.
- Clearly communicate and champion community care opportunities.
- Adherence to doctrinal statement, mission, vision, & governance structure.
- Weekly staff meetings and bi-monthly SMT meetings.
- Staff training times and retreats.
- Other as directed by Senior Pastor.

Accountable to: Senior Pastor
