Job Posting: Bi-vocational Pastor

Tryon Baptist Church seeks to engage, equip, and empower people for a life of Christian service. Centrally located in Prince Edward Island, our Church has a long history of faith, service, and friendship within our community.

We are looking for a bi-vocational pastor to join us and to share in our core values of: teaching God's Word; loving our neighbours; serving our community; welcoming everyone; and witnessing God change lives.

Duties

We are eager to find an individual who is committed to working with our Church family to further building upon our priorities. These priorities include growth as an inclusive and welcoming community of worship, a commitment to strengthening families, contributing to lifelong learning, and building further capacity in areas such as music and outreach.

As Pastor of Tryon Baptist Church, the successful candidate will be responsible for:

- delivering a weekly Sunday sermon;
- leading a weekly Bible study;
- providing leadership in community outreach;
- participating in visitation and counsel (as needed); and
- working with Church leaders to carry out the mission of Tryon Baptist Church.

Requirements

The successful candidate must be committed to the service of Christ and demonstrate this commitment in their daily life.

The ability to effectively communicate and share God's word with a multi-generational congregation in a manner that contributes to spiritual understanding and growth is essential.

Prior experience as a pastor or lay pastor is highly valued. An undergraduate degree in Biblical Studies or a related professional credential is preferred but not necessary.

To apply

Applicants are asked to provide a cover letter, resume, and contact information for three references to:
