

Central Yarmouth Baptist Church Background information:

Central Yarmouth Baptist Church is a new church planted in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. The church originally consisted of former members of Zion Baptist Church. These folks had a vision for sustaining their witness as a new congregation in the town of Yarmouth. Keith Moore is the Lead Pastor. Central Yarmouth Baptist Church was voted and affirmed by the Yarmouth Baptist Association, then voted and affirmed by the CBAC Council on Friday, September 18, 2020. Central Yarmouth Baptist Church represents one of our New Congregations—and another step towards our 2025 goal of welcoming 65 New Congregations.

Having followed the guidelines as outlined in the General Operating Bylaw of the Canadian Baptists of Atlantic Canada (Section 3.02), Central Yarmouth Baptist Church formally requests to become a member of the Canadian Baptists of Atlantic Canada accepting all the rights, responsibilities, and expectations of members (Section 3.04).
