Job Posting Interim Director, Camp Tulakadik

Located on the shores of Cassidy Lake, outside Norton, New Brunswick, Camp Tulakadik is a place where children, youth, families and the community gather to enjoy and experience God's creation and make lasting relationships, with one another and with Jesus Christ.

Camp Tulakadik is owned and operated by the Saint John Kings Association of Baptist Churches and our goal is to be operational year-round. It features winterized cabins, a main lodge, basketball courts, outdoor rock climbing and rappelling walls, waterfront boats, a pool, a water park, and much more. For further information, visit www.camptulakadik.com.

Interim Director

Camp Tulakadik, on behalf of its camp board, is currently inviting qualified applicants to apply for the key and exciting position of INTERIM DIRECTOR of Camp Tulakadik.

Employed by Camp Tulakadik and reporting to the camp board, the Interim Director will have overall daily operational responsibilities to lead, implement and execute programs and activities, all towards the goal of offering excellence in Christ-centered camping. The Interim Director will bring strategic, creative, enthusiastic leadership to our camp ministry. Responsibilities include communicating and furthering camp vision, staff training and supervision, program development and implementation and promotion.

Qualified applicants should possess a deep personal relationship with Jesus Christ and the ability to express this love. Our Interim Director must have a passion for Christ-centered camping ministry. They must also be in agreement with and supportive of the ministry of the Convention of Atlantic Baptist Churches. The successful candidate will have camping experience and a passion for outdoor Christian Education.

This position is temporary/full time and will begin on April 5th, 2021 with an ending date of September 17th, 2021. Residence at the camp for the duration of the employment period is desired.

Please submit your resume and a letter outlining your interest in Camp Tulakadik and its ministry to the chair of our search committee Jerry Horsman.

He can be emailed at jerryr437@gmail.com. Job posting closes on February 12th, 2021.
