Position Title - Pastor

Brief Job Description

We are seeking a Pastor for the Digby Baptist Church in the south westerly quadrant of the beautiful Annapolis Basin which flows into the Bay of Fundy. Important values that guide our life together as a congregation include open communication, inclusion of children and youth, Bible study, ecumenical co-operation, study and growth in personal discipleship, and community involvement. We value a Spiritual leader who will inspire the congregation and give guidance and inspiration to our congregation, and deliver a traditional worship with special music and prayer as our central activity.

Overview of Church and Community

A comprehensive document is available upon request for prospective ministers who would like to inquire about this opportunity.

Roles and Responsibilities

Preparing and conducting Sunday services and special worship services, conducts funerals, baptisms, weddings, nursing home and hospital services, provide pastoral care and/or counselling to individuals, visiting with members of the congregation, working with youth leaders and Christian education committee to support the implementation of programs for youth and families.

Qualification and Education Requirements

CBAC (Canadian Baptists of Atlantic Canada) accredited and ordained preferred.

Preferred Traits and Skills

A person who is open, inviting and inclusive, who encourages our members to be involved. Someone who will make honest, authentic connections with congregants, and have a willingness to visit congregational members. Formal training or experience in any of the following areas would be an asset: preaching, worship leadership, youth and family ministry, pastoral care and counselling, competent in computer skills.

Additional Information

The Committee appreciates the inclusion of references with submission of a resume. Applications from prospective ministers will be accepted until the position is filled.

Candidates who are shortlisted will be required to provide references.
