Cherryfield Baptist Church is in the process of seeking a position of a Pastor. We are a Church with an attendance between Thirty and Forty on Sundays. The average age is on the plus side of Sixty Five. We also have a youth group between five to ten Youth a college and career group and we share our facility with the Maranatha Church Assemblies to hold their own services.

Cherryfield started the Unstuck Program last fall to determine the culture and unity of our Church. Through the first part of this program we have established five core values on which to move forward at Cherryfield. These core values are: Fellowship, Spiritual Readiness, Participation, Mutual Care, and Foundational.

The Next Step is to formulate a vision for growth based on the culture and values of Cherryfield. Prayer and God's leading is essential in moving this forward. We have five acres of land for development across the street from our present location.

Qualities that a candidate should have are a strong sense of God's calling for a new chapter in their Ministry, people skills with both seniors and youth and administrative ability working in a team atmosphere, is important. A visionary aspect for Ministry. preaching / teaching in well planned Scripture based messages and Bible studies .

Other ministries would include Hospital visitation, counseling and meeting emergency needs of members.

You are invited to submit your resume for consideration to Cherryfield Baptist Church Limited attention Walter Stevens PO Box 23127, Moncton, N B E1A 6S8.
