

Job posting: Administrative Assistant and Event Coordinator

The Canadian Baptists of Atlantic Canada (CBAC) is seeking an Administrative Assistant and Event Coordinator who loves Jesus, loves the church, and wants to use their skills for God's mission. The Administrative Assistant and Event Coordinator will serve the CBAC Team by providing organizational, system, event and administrative support and excellence. Skills in creating efficient systems, organization, editing, record keeping, hospitality and event management are essential for this role.

Overview: The CBAC Administrative Assistant and Event Coordinator will support the CBAC Team to enable systems, connections, meetings, and events to happen efficiently and effectively to meet our goals. Please see the full job description for this role.

About the Canadian Baptists of Atlantic Canada (CBAC):

The CBAC is a family of approximately 400 Canadian Baptist Churches across the four Atlantic Provinces – New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland & Labrador. We have many organizations and agencies that meet the needs of our Churches and pastors but also reach well beyond our churches in terms of impact.

Some of our key partners and agencies include a financial agency (Atlantic Baptist Foundation), a university (Crandall University), a seminary (Acadia Divinity College), a seniors housing agency (Atlantic Baptist Housing), and a global Mission agency (Canadian Baptist Ministries). The role of the CBAC is to support and provide resources for our pastors, churches, and people, all to facilitate our shared mission.

Our purpose is being and making disciples of Jesus Christ, who are integrated into the life and ministry of healthy, growing churches, committed to fulfilling the Great Commission and the doing of God's will on earth.

Our vision is to inspire and enable every church to join God in their neighbourhoods so that many come to know Jesus.
